

Kate Jaspon

Chief Financial Officer

Kate Jaspon is the Chief Financial Officer of Dunkin' Brands. In this role, she is responsible for the global financial planning and analysis, accounting, financial reporting, business analytics, tax, debt and cash management, enterprise risk management, electronic payments, insurance and demand planning functions for domestic and international Dunkin' and Baskin-Robbins. Kate has lead Dunkin' through a number of transactions including the Company's IPO and follow-on equity offerings, securitization and numerous other debt transactions, the divestiture of a brand and several system implementations.

She also currently serves as the Audit Committee Chair of the Board of Directors for MOD Pizza.

Kate joined Dunkin' Brands in December 2005 as Assistant Controller. She was later promoted to Vice President, Finance and Treasury and Corporate Controller, and was appointed Chief Financial Officer in June 2017.

Eight years prior to joining Dunkin' Brands, Kate started her career with KPMG LLP, the international financial services corporation, culminating in a role as Senior Manager, where she supported both public and private companies as an auditor.

Kate earned a B.S. in Finance from Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts and is a CPA licensed in Massachusetts.

She is drinkin' a Dunkin' Iced Coffee with skim milk and scoopin' Baskin-Robbins Jamoca.
